

New Light on Jane Austen's Great-Grandmother: A Complete Transcript of Elizabeth Weller's Memorandum and Account Book and Seven Newly Found Letters: Acknowledgments & Works Cited

By Azar Hussain

Azar Hussain (email: azarmhussain@gmail.com) is an independent researcher based in London. His research focuses on the eighteenth century and specifically Jane Austen. His work has appeared in Notes & Queries, Persuasions, Persuasions On-Line, and the Jane Austen Society Annual Report.

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I would like to thank Sophie Reynolds and the team at Jane Austen's House for kindly allowing me to consult Elizabeth Weller's manuscript, account book, and other items. The following have also kindly assisted with various enquiries: Jo Strong, Mick Bright, John Avery Jones, Mark Ballard, Ron Dunning, Catherine Kendall (Sheffield Museums Trust), Barry Landa (Knocker and Foskett), Elizabeth Lindley (Sheffield Museums Trust), Sally Robbins (Sevenoaks School), Emma Yandle (Chawton House), and the staff at both the Suffolk Record Office and Hampshire Record Office, who courteously and patiently dealt with my many enquiries.
